everyone is a blend of the four,
with some temperaments dominating more than the others, I think. quite an interesting line of thought and also very ancient.

Because if you want to get anywhere in life, having the ability to get along with people, have them understand you and appreciate you all begins with discovering why you think and act the way you do – and why others are naturally different. Then you can adjust the way you deal with different people slightly so that you can get along with them better, get your point across more clearly and become more successful in everything that you do.

are behaving the way they do.

And, as a consequence, they won't change their behavior until it stops getting them what they want. Now, here's the interesting part.
